EXECUTIVE PROFILE

Nonprofit finance executive with deep experience in government-funded human services, bringing hands-on leadership of budgeting, forecasting, cash management, audit readiness, and internal controls. Directed financial controls, billing, and compliance for New York City agency contracts (NYCHA, Department of Homeless Services) and led a 140-person, multi-program social-services division with full P&L accountability. Reversed a $1M operating deficit into a 13% surplus and designed fund-accounting and grant-compliance frameworks under GAAP and Uniform Guidance. Partners closely with the CEO and Board Finance and Audit Committees, and modernizes ERP, IT, and operating systems to give leadership clear, timely financial reporting.
